

IDIOM TASKS

Monday:

- Use each idiom correctly in a sentence.
- Make your sentences interesting, unusual, and exciting!
- Optional: connect your sentences into a tale.

Tuesday:

- Create two sketches.
- The first should show the literal meaning of the idiom.
- The second should show the figurative meaning.

Wednesday:

- Research an idiom's origins.
- Try to find at least three sources, because some may be different.
- Only one idiom is required, although feel free to go beyond.

Thursday:

- Write a summary of your week using each idiom.
- This summary must be completely made up.
- Make it fun and entertaining!

---

IDIOM TASKS

Monday:

- Use each idiom correctly in a sentence.
- Make your sentences interesting, unusual, and exciting!
- Optional: connect your sentences into a tale.

Tuesday:

- Create two sketches.
- The first should show the literal meaning of the idiom.
- The second should show the figurative meaning.

Wednesday:

- Research an idiom's origins.
- Try to find at least three sources, because some may be different.
- Only one idiom is required, although feel free to go beyond.

Thursday:

- Write a summary of your week using each idiom.
- This summary must be completely made up.
- Make it fun and entertaining!